

Skolkovo

Architectural Studio Tatiana & Dmitry Khoroshev was founded by the eponymous family duo, both graduates from the Moscow Architectural Institute.

Dmitry did an internship at Columbia University in New York, USA. Their team has been doing the interior design of residential units and public buildings for over 15 years now.

The core elements of their philosophy include attention to detail, professional responsibility for their decisions, perfectly balanced concepts and a good taste.

They acquired enough experience to bring any concept into reality, no matter how complex it may be. They successfully completed a number of interior design projects and executed them in other countries, including Greece, Austria, Luxembourg and Italy.

(Please send short text about this project).

www.lighthousegroup.ru

Photography:

